November 5, 2008

Dear Parents and Family,

God bless you today! I hope this letter finds you and your family well and excited about the upcoming holiday season.

I also hope that the other event on November 4th, report card distribution, marked a first quarter of productivity and success for all students. As admissions criteria for college grow more stringent, so do the demands for our kids to excel both in their studies and in their extracurricular activities. I am confident that all CrossFire students can and will achieve their goals on their way to a successful career and life of service for our LORD.

In efforts to join with them and with your family in this process, CrossFire will soon reopen its Help Class, where students can come to receive subject area tutoring and/or to find a quiet place to study away from the distractions of home.

As we endeavor in this process, your feedback is most critical. Please take few moments to read over and/or complete the enclosed questionnaire and then assess any potential needs with your kids.

If you choose to participate, please return the questionnaire to the Crossroads office by Monday, December 22nd. Once all questionnaires are returned and assessed, we will set a pilot date and reopen Help Class once school resumes after the holiday and we will do so on a day and time that will allow for the most involvement.

As always, if you have any additional input, concerns, or questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

It is a pleasure to serve with you!

Jared "Jay" Edgar
Pastor of Student Ministry

Your feedback and involvement are paramount to the success of "Help Class."
THANK YOU!
